INAUGURATION OF THE NEW GALLERY IN PORTO CERVO

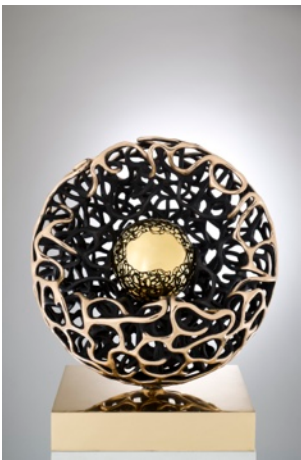

The SimonBart gallery is pleased to announce the opening of its new gallery in Porto Cervo (Costa Smeralda) inside the beautiful setting of the Promenade du Port.

The SimonBart gallery is a natural continuation of a project that began more than twenty five years ago with the art gallery Il Novecento, historical gallery of Salerno that in numerous occasions has crossed the borders of the city to become a solid reality in the national art market.

Contemporary art is the artistic territory in which the gallery operates, taking shape as a laboratory for the diffusion of new Italian and international trends and as a showcase of famous personalities in the history of art of the twentieth century.

In the new location, from June and throughout the summer, will be exhibited, among others, the works of the sculptors Marco Cornini, Daniele Fortuna, Gianfranco Meggiato, Rabarama; the works of the painters Angelo Accardi, Sergi Barnils, Stefano Bolcato, Max Gasparini, Manzur Kargar, Andrea Marcoccia, Matteo Massagrande, Gian Paolo Rabito, Andrei Sharov.

Among the masters of the twentieth century the gallery includes the names of Giacomo Balla, Afro Basaldella, Fernando Botero, Alberto Burri, Giuseppe Capogrossi, Piero D'Orazio, Lucio Fontana.
